

COLLEGE NEWSPAPERS SEND REPRESENTATIVES

Delegates from the advertising staffs of the Stanford, University of California, University of San Francisco, and San Francisco State college student newspapers will attend the Third Annual Bay Area College Advertising Conference here at SJSO Saturday, May 22, according to George Link, assistant business manager of the Spartan Daily.

"Mr. Al Bower, promotion manager of the San Jose Mercury-Herald, will be the guest speaker during our luncheon at Lou's Village," he declared.

The delegates will meet in the Publications office at 10:15 a.m., where coffee and doughnuts will be served the visitors.

Next on the program is a tour of the Daily offices at 10:30.

Conferences begin at 11 a.m., with these Daily ad staff members as discussion leaders: Management, Marie Somky; Promotion, Edward Roberts; Rates, Fred Albright; and Sales, George Link.

After a general meeting of the delegates at 12 o'clock, closing the business part of the conference, the group will adjourn for luncheon and Mr. Bower's speech, scheduled for 1 p.m.

Organizations Must Remove Spardi Gras Campaign Posters; Contest Rules Set

The Spardi Gras committee has sent out a plea for all organizations who sponsored candidates for Queen to remove posters and other publicity matter from the campus, announced Sal Millan, publicity director, yesterday.

Millan also announced that in order to be eligible for the Baby Derby, children must be 18 months or younger. "At least, children must be in the creeping stage," he continued.

The publicity director, in addition, released one clue to the identity of the Snoring Professor:

Avenger he is and of nothing afraid.
A debt of 880 he recently paid.

All-Comedy Show Slated For Sunday 'Knight' Moving Picture Program

Eskay Productions promises an all-comedy show for Sunday "Knight's" program. Ray Bishop, program chairman, stated that "the all-time great in the field of comedy will display their talents in a jam-packed two hours of the kind of madness that made them famous."

The top feature will be "Hold that Ghost," starring Bud Abbott, Lou Costello, Joan Davis and Ted Lewis and his orchestra. On the same program the Knights will present two comedy two-reelers, Charlie Chaplin's "The Floorwalker" and Laurel and Hardy's "Me and My Pal."

"Because of the increasing bad weather, the production will probably be held indoors," Bishop said.

Combined Departments Give Smash Hit; Student Talent Proves Outstanding As 'Robin Hood' Captivates First-Nighters

By PAT O'BRIEN

Last night the Drama and Music departments presented the most spectacular show to be seen at San Jose State college in years. "Robin Hood" comic opera played to a completely captivated audience.

The costumes, the staging, Regional deKoven's melodies, and the performers were combined to equal a professional performance.

As Robin Hood, Derrell Bond displayed a confidence and light-heartedness that held the audience whenever he appeared. His tenor voice lent itself to the high-spirited part.

Lovely Emily Baptista sang the part of Maid Marian with ease and grace. Her rich soprano voice charmed the audience.

Wesley Walton, known for his fine baritone voice, thoroughly amused the audience as The Sheriff of Nottingham. Walter Eastman also showed a natural flair for "show business" as the affable Friar Tuck. His vibrant voice was outstanding.

Virginia Wiemers played the role of Allan-a-Dale with a sufficient tomboyish air. The audience was hushed as her rich contralto voice sang the familiar "O Promise Me." As the capricious flirt Annabel, Yvonne Cadwallader delighted the audience with her sweet voice.

Renard Anderson and Phil Kearney as Little John and Will Scarlet, played their parts with rough manners that brought to life the bandits of Sherwood Forest. Don Axtell as the country buffoon Sir Guy of Gisborne, drew many chuckles from the audience.

The chorus was excellent. They displayed a cohesiveness not seen in many productions.

SENIORS

Memorandums listing details of Senior Week activities and instructions of interest to graduating seniors are now available in the Personnel office.

Student Y Holds Annual Hayride, Barbecue Tonight

Student Y's and guests will dance under the stars tonight at the annual hayride and barbecue at Fortini's Ranch. The Y station wagon will leave the Student Y, 220 S. Seventh street, at 5:30 and 6:30 to take students off for the evening of dancing, eating, swimming, games and hayriding, said President Bruce McNeil.

A limited number of tickets are still available at the Student Y office. The hayride will cost 85 cents per student and is open to all Spartans.

Spartan Spinners Direct Institute

A teachers' Institute, sponsored by the Folk Dance Federation of California, will be held in the Women's gymnasium from 1 to 10 p.m. Sunday.

The Institute, which is under the direction of the San Jose State college Spartan Spinners, will provide dance instruction and motion pictures on folk dancing for more than 200 Bay area instructors and interested dancers. Institute chairman is Henry "Buzz" Glass of Berkeley.

The program for the day schedules dancing from 1-6 p.m., followed by motion pictures and more dancing from 7:30-10. Dances to be taught include Cumberland Square (English), Island Schottisch (Hawaiian), Spanish Circle (American), and the Lithuanian Kalvelis.

SPARDI GRAS KING AND QUEEN TO RULE AT FESTIVITIES, DANCE

... KING BILL O'RIELLY

"Sure it's the luck of the Irish," declared Bill O'Reilly when he was informed that he had been selected to rule as king over the Spardi Gras.

"I am certainly pleased with this honor," he explained. "As for the queen, she is terrific!"

Bill attended Lincoln High in San Jose and is a pre-dental student at San Jose State college. He is a member of Delta Theta Omega.

According to Bill, his favorite sports are tennis, skiing, and swimming, and he likes to "tinker around with cars."

"Nope, I am not married or engaged," he stated. "I have a lot of schooling ahead of me before I can be thinking about marriage."

Santa Cruz is the King's home, but he lives at his frat house, going home on week ends whenever possible.

"Any guy would be proud to be Joanne's king," Bill stated. "Need I say more?"

Bill can be described as a handsome Irishman with dark brown hair, light colored eyes and a winning personality.

GI Insurance May Still Be Reinstated

World War II veterans who have allowed their National Service Life term insurance to lapse have only until July 31 to reinstate it without physical examination.

In order to reinstate, the veteran need only certify that his health is as good as when the policy lapsed and pay two monthly premiums, according to a recent Veterans' Administration bulletin.

More than 130,000 veterans in California, Arizona, and Nevada have taken advantage of the reinstatement offer in the past 15 months, the VA reveals.

Playday Archers Will Meet Today

All archers scheduled to participate in tomorrow's playday at Stanford are requested to attend the WAA Archery Club meeting today at 1:30 p.m., announces Manager Virginia Heseman. Girls are to meet Saturday morning at the Women's gym at 8.

LEITNER INDICTED FOR BURGLARY

Preliminary hearing of Raymond King Leitner, 45, charged with burglary in connection with entering Mary E. George boarding house, May 6, was held yesterday morning. Leitner, whose attorney was not present, pleaded not guilty to the charges, according to court records.

The hearing was held in Police court under Judge O'Connor. Lois Wolfe, San Jose State college student, testified she had caught sight of a man in the house and had spoken to him. She later identified his voice and silhouette. Her roommate, Marian Swanson, testified that her purse was stolen containing four one dollar bills.

Judge O'Connor indicted Leitner and had him held over for Superior Court under $2500 bond.

Stanford Zetas Hosted By APO

The Stanford Zeta chapter of Alpha Phi Omega, national service fraternity, visited San Jose State college's Gamma Beta chapter recently.

Sports Final

The San Jose State college varsity rifle team met the Cal Aggies team at Davis yesterday and won by a score of 1386 to 1368.

In softball, the Hit Paraders won by a forfeit over the Spartan Chi team.

HAL TRUSCOTT RECUPERATING

Harold E. Truscott, senior aeronautics major, who suffered injuries last Friday night, is recuperating at home.

Truscott was struck by a baseball bat at the Junior-Senior barbecue. His wife said that in addition to his injuries, another tooth extraction will be necessary. He will probably return to classes sometime next week.

WASHINGTON—President Harry Truman arrived in Philadelphia where he will visit and address 1300 boys at Girard college whose fathers have died.

WASHINGTON—John L. Lewis declared yesterday that "three industrialists have the power to determine whether we will have peace in the coal industries."

WASHINGTON—The House Mundt bill passed the House by an overwhelming majority. Senator Robert Taft (R. Ohio) declared that it may be at least a year before it is okayed by the Senate.

PHILADELPHIA—The Democrats named Senator Alben Barkley of Kentucky as their keynote speaker and recommended that Rep. Sam Rayburn of Texas be made the permanent chairman.

WASHINGTON—A record flight of 8000 miles was made by a B-36 Superbomber with a dummy bombload of nearly five tons. It stayed aloft for a day and a half.

FRANKFURT—The U. S. closed the border between the American and Russian zones of Germany even to the extent of barring official Soviet missions.

SAN DIEGO—Henry Wallace called the Mundt-Nixon bill the "single greatest threat to our Democratic system ever conceived."

HELSINKI—By an 81-60 vote, the Finnish Parliament censured its Minister Yrjoe Leino, a leading Communist. This normally calls for a resignation of an official.

Here's Where To Go There's Plenty To Do We've Got Our Dates ... How About You?

It's like this . . . If you never have a date, if you don't eat in restaurants, if you never spend any of the long green for recreation, in other words . . . if you're a smoo that never mixes with the masses . . . don't read this page, forget it, tear it out, it's not for you.

BUT . . . if you do hit the high spots once in a while, or dance, or swim, or take a date to dinner, then this page was designed for you, so continue with the reading matter.

Women are suckers for flowers. Just a gardenia or a rose presented in a gallant manner will make them beam like an Ever-ready all evening. The right prices for these small bouquets are found at THE HOUSE OF FLOWERS, drop in and see what they can do for you at a very nominal price.

BOHANNON'S RESTAURANT is ready, willing, and deliciously able to serve dinner for your fraternity, sorority, club, or butterfly society. The next time you plan an organization dinner let Bohannon's serve you in the grand manner in their private dining room.

When that overpowering urge to have a beautiful steak overtakes you, the smart set makes with the heels to ARCHIE'S STEAK HOUSE. The biggest, tenderest, tastiest, steaks you've tasted waits for you at Archie's, where steaks are from cow's of distinction.

Join the caravan of Spartans that makes the short trip to Los Altos each week to make their headquarters at beautiful, spacious, ADOBE CREEK LODGE. You can swim, dance, eat, have picnics, relax, or roll around in the foothills, which just about covers the subject.

You can't go wrong when you spend a pleasant evening at CLUB FLAMINGO. The food is really fine (all the chicken you can eat for $1.50, honest, they mean it). There's always a good band on hand for your dancing pleasure, and the floor is always filled with headline acts.

We've been telling you about the wonderful Pizza at the PIZZERIA NAPOLITANO for some time now and if you still haven't tried this delicious baked dish, get your bucket of bolts down there tonight, walk even, it's worth it.

ART MAJOR

Dear Gus . . .

This mornin' like a lark I was happy Me insides was bubblin' I felt so good and kind towards the world. I thought Ol' Lady Fate must've been with me for keeps when sweet Love gently blasted me straight up in the air today, Gus.

This is like how it happened tuh me, Gus, ol' friend.

"I'm windin' up a smoke on the library stairs when this tiny bundle of fluff comes bouncin' across the lawn. She waltzes right past and into the library. Gus, everything in me heart an' head turns tuh mush—and me lower lip gets singed from the very short smoke still there.

Now, they carry edjucation a long way here in college, Gus, so I've gone right along with it. I figure here's me chance.

Me mind is made up so I'm waitin' 'til she comes roarin' out again.

Not two minutes go by when out she pops like a main spring. In a flash me back is turned, an' as she breezes by,—me right leg moves back casual-like an' she goes splashing all over the sidewalk. It was awful, Gus. When it stops rainin' books and papers, I remove me hat (like a gentleman) and walks around in front where she can see me from the ground.

Just like Charles Boil in pictures I'm bending down from the waist, smilin' debonair-like in her face and sayin' sweetly:

"I begl' yuh pardon, Miss, but I could not help observ'n yuh lain' prone on the pavement. May I be of assistance to yuhs?"

Gus, I don't know what happened, but it started from the ground.

She gets up, I got a dozen or so belts across the head, both me eyeballs go rollin' down the stairs like marbles, and what she said I felt like a dead yow-yow hangin' on the end of a wet string.

Me heart is busted, Gus. Your apoplexied friend,
Jim Hoffe

Student Muddle On Mystery Of Initials Cleared By Webster

The degree of Bachelor of Arts is indicated by A. B. Then another time you will see it written B. A. This variation is enough to set an otherwise sane man crazy. Which is correct?

A few weeks ago I wandered into the library and decided to get this thing settled for good. Webster, of the dictionary fame, was able to straighten things out.

It seems the variation of the abbreviation arose over the fact that the degree was originally written in Latin as Artium Baccalaureus. The name also can be written Baccalaureus Artium. Written either way in Latin it is not so essential to the sense as it is in English.

The difference also is expressed in A. M. and M. A. for Artium Magister or Magister Artium both mean Master of Arts.

To sum the whole thing up, it is usually written M. A. and B. A. because these are the correct abbreviation for both the original Latin phrases and their English translations.

Gum 'By Gum'

A profound editorial from the University of Idaho Argonaut, appropriately titled: "Forever Blowing Bubbles":

"As an answer to a lot of problems and the source of many troubles, bubble gum was being considered—pro and con—last week by Idaho students.

"There was a lot to be said in favor of it. A cup of coffee and a wad of bubble gum cost only six cents and was found to be almost as satisfying, and probably as nutritious, as a butterhorn and coffee. Bubble gum blowing helped some students stay awake in class and may become a major indoor sport.

"It had some bad points. No one had yet learned how to remove it from lips, noses, eyebrows, or glasses. Professors were becoming annoyed at students who blew small, but loud bubbles during lectures. Another difficulty—some students found it impossible to blow a bubble."

It's A Joke, Son

The Chicago State College Wildcat contributes this bit to posterity:

Girl: "I've been asked to get married lots of times."

Boy: "Who asked?"

Girl: "Mother and father."

Looking Ahead

A bit swiped from the Stanford Daily sports page:

"Take five or six familiar faces, mix thoroughly with JC transfers, and you have the situation that faces the gentleman who will choose the starting ends for the 1948 Stanford football team . . .

"The end position cannot help but be stronger next year. As it appears now, not one of the varsity ends will be missing when the San Jose State game starts the season."

Beta Chi Sigma Becomes Gamma Xi At Gala Installation Banquet

Theta Chi fraternity was organized in 1856 at Norwich university, Northfield, Vermont. Gamma Xi becomes the 86th chapter to join the list of chapters in leading colleges and universities all over the nation.

The former local fraternity, Beta Chi Sigma, was first organized in 1939 with 12 charter members. Membership of the new chapter of Theta Chi now totals 63.

TWENTY SJS TRACKMEN ENTER MODESTO RELAYS

By CARL UNDERWOOD

Although definitely undermanned, 20 Spartan trackmen will enter the California Relays at Modesto Saturday... At Los Angeles the preceeding night, sprinter Don Smalley will be the lone San Jose entrant in the Colesium Relays. Since the discus, 880 and mile events will not be held, no other Spartans will compete in the star-studded Colesium meet. At Modesto, USC is favored to cop collegiate scoring honors once again, while the Los Angeles Athletic Club should take the overall team title.

POINT GETTERS LOST

Coach Bud Winter's San Jose cindermen will be without the much-needed services of several point getters, especially NC2A javelin champ Bob Likens who decided to hang up his spikes because of scholastic difficulties. Quarter miler Fred Mangini and sprinter Fred Mangini and sprinter Bill Parton will also be unable to compete since they are devoting full time to spring football practice. As a result, San Jose will not enter the 440 or 880 yard sprint relays, and javelin.

Spartan runners will also pass up the medley event, but Thelno Knowles, Gene Haynes, Lowell Nash and Bob Seymour will attempt to pick up points in the two mile relay.

SPECIAL MILE RELAY

In the special mile relay, Coach Winter will try out a new combination of Knowles, Stu Inman, Dick Webster and Steve O'Meara in hopes of winning the event from Pepperdine and Santa Barbara, who finished 1-2 at Fresno last week.

O'Meara, although normally a sprinter, sped through a 50.6 440 during the week, and should be able to improve this time Saturday. Knowles, Inman and Webster have all bettered 50.0.

A Spartan quartet of Jack and Bill Passey, Rodger Smythe and Jerry Greene, are entering a special 480-shuttle hurdle relay. They will attempt to press Stanford's great quartet of high hurdlers, who are going after the world record of 58.7.

SIZZLING 100 IN STORE

The 100-meter dash features several sprinters who will probably be battling it out in the Olympic Games this summer. In addition to USC's Pel-Mel Patton and Panama's Lloyd LaBeach, Johnny Treloar, Australlas speed merchant, Herb McKinley, 440 world record holder, and the Texas Tornado, Charley Parker, will be entered.

Mignosi To Face Mills In Match

Steve Mignosi, local billiard expert, has been chosen to face Jim Mills, former Pacific Coast champion, in a scheduled billiard exhibition match at the Spartan gym Monday evening.

The match will start at 7:30 p. m., will be a regulation 125 point game of billiards. Following the game, Mills, who held the West Coast title for fifteen years, will give a demonstration of trick shots.

Danny Hill, athletic publicity director, stated that admission was free and all were invited.

THE BULL PEN

By ARNOLD WECHTER

The first two games of the 1948 football season should show how the wind will blow for the Spartans. Stanford has been without victory for a long time and will not be the push-over they were supposed to be last year. Never take any team too lightly and that includes the boys down on the farm.

WOLF CALL

The Spartans return home in what should prove to be one of the best games of the season, when they meet the always powerful University of Nevada Wolves. If your memory holds up you probably remember that the wolfpack toppled the powerful Oregon team last year. This game also should prove a test of the drawing power of a new conference.

The first week of October brings Puget Sound to our door. Can't say much for the Northerners, though they might give the Spartans a rough evening. Football is a funny game and anything can happen.

TAKE THE DAYLIGHT

San Jose embarks on their first long trip of the season when they meet highly touted Pepperdine at Los Angeles on October 9. A few years ago no one had ever heard of this small Southern college, but they are making a big name for themselves and would like nothing better than to knock over the Spartans. This might be the excuse you have been looking for to take that trip on the Daylight!

Still on the road, San Jose starts her CCAA campaign against Cal Poly. The Mustang is a nag and no writer is going to kid the public on this one. The Spartans should enjoy a nice trip home.

Santa Barbara is next on the agenda. They are, according to reports, greatly strengthened this year. Could prove to be a tough and interesting game. By the way, it is played here.

BIG GAME

October 29 is a date to remember, get the jalopies warmed up and head for Stockton. This game should be humdinger. We're talking about the COP game, Eddie LeBaron, who many claim to be the leading quarterback in the country, will be the star for the Tigers. Bill Hubbard will have a few tricks up his sleeve for this game.

The Spartans can't afford to let down the next week. They meet the always-tough Brigham Young. Those Rocky Mountain boys can be awful tough when they want to be.

November 12, the CCAA race is warming up. Always-tough San Diego will give the Spartans an interesting evening.

The conference wind-up game for the Gold and White will be another traditional affair, with the Fresno State Bulldogs taking the trip to San Jose. Don't forget what happened in 1947! You can lay odds that Bill Hubbard and the boys won't.

PREP RELAYS AT SPARTAN FIELD

The first annual High School Invitational Relays, sponsored by the San Jose 20-30 club, will be held Saturday at Spartan Field. The track and field carnival will get under way at 10 a.m., with finals beginning at 1:30. Admission charge for students is 60 cents.

The local 20-30 club is going all out in an attempt to put on a real show for local track fans. Among other things, they will award large trophies to the winning relay teams, individual high point winners, and the top teams of the meet.

Class A and B 440 and 880 sprint and mile relays, a two mile, sprint medley, distance medley, and shuttle hurdle relay will be included in the track events. In addition, an open 100-yard dash, 120-yard high hurdles, and all field events are on the program.

Outstanding high school trackmen from all over the bay region will participate in the Relays.

BULLDOGS HOST TO SPARTANS

Walt Williams and his Spartan baseball representatives travel to Fresno this morning for a three-game CCAA series with the Bulldogs.

Two games will be played this evening, with Bob Santos and Ralph Romero doing mound duty for San Jose State. The final episode, scheduled for tomorrow afternoon, brings down the curtain on the 1948 diamond season for the locals. Bob Pifferini is slated to accept the hilltop assignment for the finale.

Pifferini and John Metz, center fielder, will be appearing in their last contest for San Jose, since both men are graduating seniors.

Metz got off to a slow start early in the campaign, but has been hitting sharply for the Spartans during the past month.

The body is but a pair of pinners set over a bellows and a stewpan and the whole fixed upon stilts.—Butler.

Lawson's Game Chances Slim

Varsity wrestler Sam Lawson's chances of making the Olympic team appear slim, according to Coach Ted Mumby. Lawson finished fourth in the final trials at Ames, Iowa, and became first alternate when the winner announced that he did not intend to compete. The United States team will start training at the Naval Academy, Annapolis, Maryland, June 1.

Mumby announced yesterday that all wrestlers will meet in the small gym Monday afternoon at 3:30 to make plans for a team picnic.

The all-out effort of the military science department to pass Friday's Federal inspection was successful. Col. John H. Pitzer, head of the ROTC here, said that he was more than pleased with the performance of his cadets. "We've had bad weather conditions for drill practice, but all went well," he said. The inspecting officer is Col. J. S. Switzer, Sixth Army Headquarters. From left to right are: Cadet Captains Robert S. Barmittler and Fred Yaeger, Cadet Major James S. Pliver, Col. Switzer, Cadet Lt. Carl Hoffman, and Cadet Flight Officer Hal Snook.

Official inspection results are being awaited by Col. Pitzer and his men.

Now is the time to buy STERLING

Now is the time to start your sterling service—or to fill out your set. For there has been little or no price increase in many years. And the extra pieces, so long unobtainable, are back again—both in the established patterns of solid silver, and those recently introduced.

Truly, sterling is one of today's few real bargains. Six-piece place settings, in many of the popular patterns, are priced under $25, including Federal Tax.

Great names in solid silver

The patterns illustrated are by International Sterling and Heirloom Sterling. Many of the patterns in Gorham Sterling, Towle Sterling and Wallace Sterling also are available at Proctor's famed silverware department.

Stop in at Proctor's tomorrow. It will be our pleasure for you to inspect these triumphs of the silversmith's art. Come in and browse around. Remember, you pay nothing extra for credit at Proctor's—only the established price.

Almost any type of picture may qualify in one of the four divisions—Action, People, Landscape, War—open in this year's Spartan Daily Photography Contest, according to the contest editors.

Although prints 5 x 7, or larger, are preferred, contributions of smaller size will be accepted, if the negatives are included. All negatives submitted will be returned immediately after the entries are judged.

The deadline for contributions to the second annual contest has been changed from May 24 to June 3.

"This is to give interested students a little more time to decide which picture, or pictures, they want to enter in the contest," explain the editors. "It also gives the Spardl Gras camera fans a chance to enter some prints."

Congressman Jack Anderson believes in preparedness! Before World War II he advocated fortification of Guam and other Pacific outposts. He also had the foresight to say, "Stop sending scrap iron to Japan."

Today, he favors strengthening of Alaska defenses and a trained army, navy and air force of sufficient size to halt aggression.

Those opposing Congressman Anderson have publicly expressed their hopes of "getting along" with aggressor nations. Have they already forgotten how futile it was to scrap our battleships? And is Munich and appeasement no longer a vivid memory?

Let's not repeat past mistakes. We must be a strong nation. And we WILL be strong as long as Jack Anderson's voice is heard in Congress.

Let's Keep
JACK ANDERSON
